NEW PAINTING OF EISENHOWER OFFERED TOWN BY HUNGARIANS

An oil painting of President Eisenhower in the midst of current international scenes will be presented to Gettysburg by the American-Hungarian Federation as a result of action by the borough council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house.

Burgess William G. Weaver announced that the Federation offered the painting to Gettysburg. Council officially accepted it and President H. M. Oyler appointed Burgess Weaver chairman of the committee to arrange for the formal presentation ceremonies.

Whether the five by four foot painting will be placed in the council chambers at the engine house or at some other location in Gettysburg was left to the discretion of the committee. A picture of the painting was shown to council members.

Because the painting is of the President Weaver said officials in Washington had approved its acceptance.

LeRoy H. Winebrenner, borough engineer, was appointed to another five-year term on the Municipal Authority and Arthur E. Hutchison was named to another five-year term as a member of the School Authority by council. The present terms of the two men expire this year.

An ordinance was adopted increasing the amount of gasoline that may be stored in tanks at the various service stations and garages to town from 8,000 to 12,000 gallons. Various gasoline companies had asked such an increase because of plans to add higher powered gasoline for the higher compression new auto engines.

A resolution was adopted putting the retaining wall constructed by Sebastian R. Hafer at his property on E. Water St. into the borough plan for improvement of Stevens Run (The Tiber).

ROTARIANS TOLD OF S. AMERICA

Customs of South American Rotary Clubs were described Monday evening by S. Edward Murphy, past president of the Hanover Rotary club, at a meeting of the Gettysburg Rotary at the YWCA. Murphy recently returned from a visit to South America.

The standard of living of South Americans generally has begun to rise, Murphy said, and he anticipated that in time the standards will be close to those in the United States. He quoted in South American industrialist as holding that in 100 years the standard of living of "the average worker in the plant and the president of the concern will be approximately the same."

Edmund W. Thomas, president of the First National Bank of Gettysburg and a founder and early president of the local Rotary club, inducted four new members into the club. They are Gen. Willard Stewart Paul, president of Gettysburg College; Paul E. Zeger, finance officer of Knouse Foods Cooperative; Paul G. Witt, proprietor of Gettysburg Motor Lodge, and George Rodney Harbaugh, physical therapist at the Warner Hospital. Thomas told the inductees that there are 9,140 Rotary clubs with 433,000 members in 80 countries of the world.

The vice president, Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, presided with 56 members present. Dr. Frederick Shaffer was pianist and Dr. Richard Newsham led group singing.

Ships Go To Port Said To Evacuate British, French

By LEONARD LEDDINGTON
PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—Troops and naval craft were on the way to Port Said today to start the evacuation of British and French troops from the Suez Canal zone.

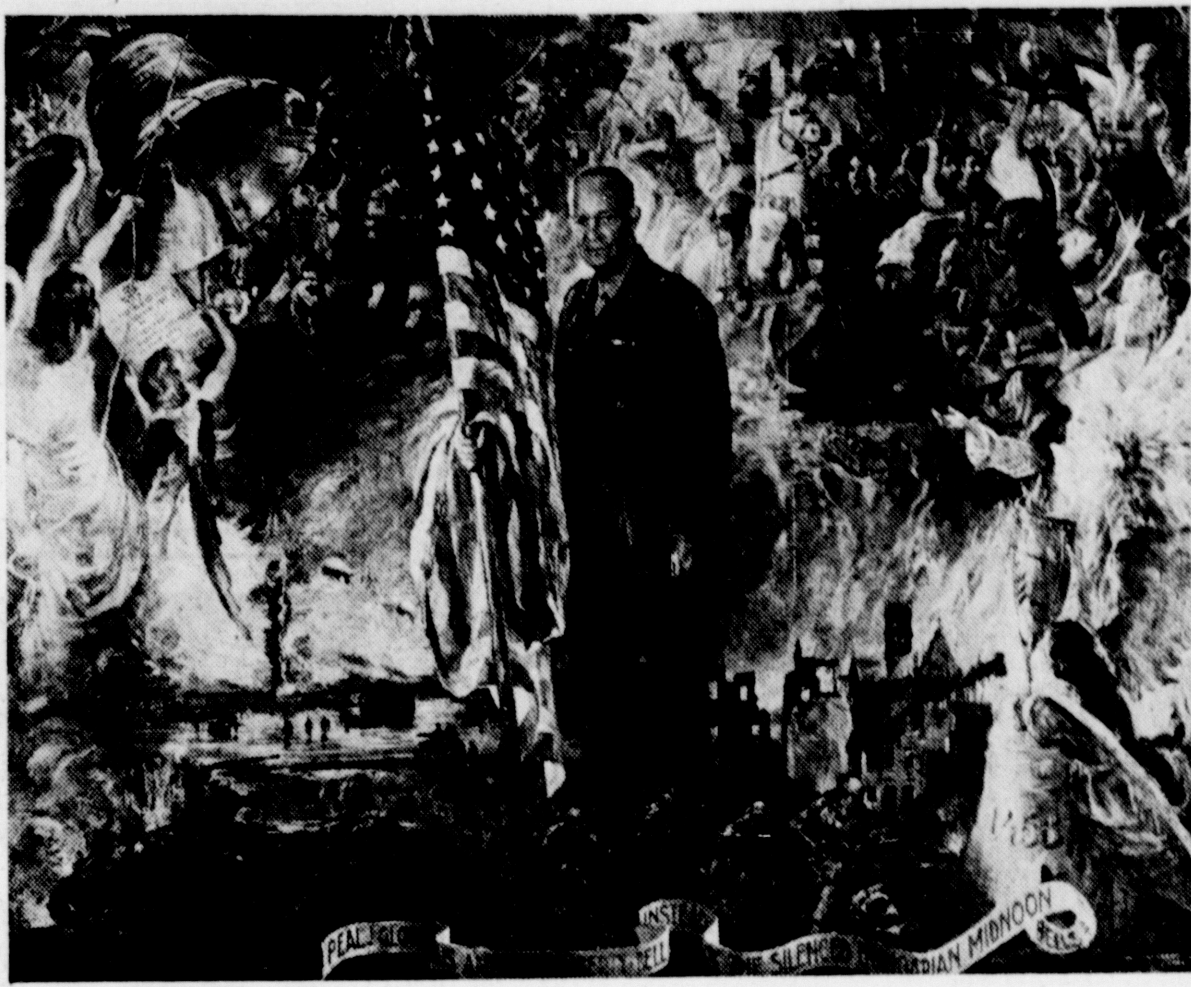

A military spokesman who announced this added that actual dates of departure of the troops would be decided after the arrival here tomorrow of Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, Canadian commander of the U.N. Emergency Force. Gen. Sir Charles Keightley, commander of the British-French force which invaded the canal zone on Nov. 5, also may arrive from Cyprus tomorrow to join in the talks with Burns.

Lt. Gen. Sir Hugh Stockwell, operations commander of the British-French task force here, toured the front lines and told the troops he would get them out of Egypt "in the next few weeks."

"Home for Christmas" was the cry raised by the celebrating soldiers. There was much backslapping and shouting.

Council Accepts Eisenhower Painting

The Borough Council Monday night accepted an oil painting of President Eisenhower offered to Gettysburg by the American-Hungarian Federation. It shows Mr. Eisenhower in the midst of current international scenes.

GIRL SCOUTS TO SING CAROLS ON DECEMBER 18TH

The county-wide Girl Scout Christmas Carol Sing in Lincoln Square will be held Tuesday evening, December 18, at 6:45 o'clock in front of the Hotel Gettysburg, the Adams County Girl Scout Council announced today.

The program, which annually attracts approximately 400 Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts from throughout the county, had originally been scheduled for December 17.

Mrs. Clarence Bartholomew, Gettysburg R. D., will direct the singing of carols after which the scouts will go to Christ Lutheran Church where refreshments will be served.

To Be Broadcast

The half-hour program will be broadcast over WGET, and police will be on hand to conduct the scouts across the streets when they move to Christ Lutheran Church following the broadcast.

In case of inclement weather on December 18 the scouts are asked to keep tuned to WGET to learn whether the program is to be postponed. Present "rain" date is December 19.

The program will open with the assembly singing "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," "O, Come All Ye Faithful," "Deck the Halls," "Silent Night," and "Away in a Manger." The members of Intermediate Troop 31 and Brownie Troop 29 of Benderville will sing "Go Tell It on" (Continued On Page 2)

Two New Asquith Stories Published

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Asquith, Biglerville writers, have had two more of their stories published recently. "The Man Without a Sign" was the featured fiction story in Sunday's magazine section of the Philadelphia Inquirer and other papers. The story is laid in Pennsylvania and involves a doctor, a nurse he loved and the Pennsylvania Dutch and their superstitions.

The November 24 issue of Presbyterian Life carried a children's story, "Trapped: Two Boys and a Lizard," also by Dean and Doris Asquith.

Reds Fire On Budapest Women

BUDAPEST (AP)—Russian soldiers opened fire in Heroes' Square today when thousands of women pressed forward to lay wreaths on the tomb of Hungary's unknown soldier.

A woman was hit by one of the several shots fired and was taken to a hospital. Her condition was described as not serious.

Eyewitnesses said the shooting broke out when the women "became unruly" while trying to force themselves past Russian soldiers to lay flowers on the tomb—exactly one month after the Russian military crackdown on the Hungarian revolution.

A Russian officer brandished a pistol, eyewitnesses said, and the women began to scatter, running in all directions. The injured woman was hit in the leg. She was placed in an ambulance and driven away.

OFFICIALS OF TOWNSHIPS TO CONVENE HERE

The 39th annual convention of Adams County Association of Township Supervisors, Secretaries, Auditors, Assessors and Tax Collectors will be held Wednesday, Dec. 12, in the courthouse.

The convention will be called to order by President Glenn Jacobs at 9:30 a.m. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Jack Gardner, pastor of the New Chester Lutheran Church. The address of welcome will be given by Judge W. C. Shelly and the response by Lewis E. Bair, secretary to Union Twp. supervisors.

A memorial service for departed members since the last convention will be conducted by Rev. Gardner. Greetings will be brought from the Adams County Association of Rural Letter Carriers Association by J. R. Hamme, New Oxford. There will be addresses by Francis Worley, representative in the legislature, and Douglas Elliot, state senator from the Adams-Franklin District; H. C. Thomson, state secretary of supervisors' association. Appointment of the nominating and resolution committees by President Jacobs will conclude the morning session. The annual free dinner will be served in the social rooms of the Gettysburg Methodist Church.

The afternoon session will convene in the courthouse at 1:30 o'clock. Milton W. DeLancey, editor of the Pennsylvania Township News, will speak. Carol O. Miller, assistant district township engineer, will make the next address. District Township Engineer Robert W. Barton will also address the convention. Another speaker will be James P. Rinehart, township administrator from the Department of Highways. Mr. Thomson will bring the closing address. Reports of the resolution committees will conclude the day's sessions.

The officers of the association are: President, Glenn Jacobs, of Reading Twp.; vice president, John R. Rayler, Menallen Twp.; secretary, Ervin J. Baker, Hamilton Twp., and treasurer, Mearl Heikes, Latimore Twp.

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR VETERANS' DAY IN FUTURE

Veterans' Day in the future may be featured by a joint observance planned by the local Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion posts, according to action taken Monday evening at a meeting of the Albert J. Lentz American post at its home on Baltimore St.

Raymond Strohm, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and a member of the Legion, outlined the program carried on November 11 under sponsorship of VFW Post 15 and suggested that the Legion conduct the program next year, with the two organizations alternating each year as the unit responsible for the Veterans' Day observance.

Members of the American Legion praised the VFW for its conduct of the Veterans Day program and suggested that instead of alternate sponsorship a joint committee be set up between the VFW and Legion to carry on the program yearly.

Committee Named

Legion Commander Attorney John A. MacPhail appointed John Guise, Lawrence M. Sheeds, Richard Fox, Paul Fox and Dr. Frederick Tilberg as a committee to meet with the Veterans of Foreign Wars to discuss plans for forthcoming Veterans' Day programs and the method to be employed to promote the activities.

Plans were outlined for the annual Christmas party for children of Legion members. The party is scheduled for December 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Legion home with the Plymouth Kiddies Review providing the entertainment. Refreshments will be served and gifts of candy and fruit presented to the youngsters.

LIBRARY BOARD TO MEET

The December meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the main library on E. High St.

Non-Communist Delegates To UN Divided On Ouster Of Hungarian Delegation

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Non-Communist U. N. delegates were reported split today over whether to press for the ouster of Hungary's delegation to the General Assembly if the Budapest government persists in barring U.N. observers.

Some diplomats were said to feel the only way to get action from the Communists would be a concerted move to reject the Hungarians' credentials. Others feared such a step might create a dangerous precedent.

The expulsion move — brewing for the past week — gained momentum in the Assembly after Hungary repeated her refusal to admit U.N. observers. She opened the door only to the extent of agreeing to receive U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld "at a later date."

Cuban delegate Emilio Nunez-Portuondo quickly reiterated his demand that Hungary's delegation be expelled.

"They are no one," he declared to the Assembly. "They came here to hoodwink us."

Odd Fellows Plan Degree Work Here

The second degree of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be exemplified this evening at 8 o'clock at the Odd Fellows Hall, Chambersburg St., to a class of 25 candidates from York, Adams and Cumberland Counties. The exemplification will be given by the Gettysburg Lodge degree team headed by David A. Tawney. The first degree of the order was conducted two weeks ago at Carlisle. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

TWO BOYS, 12, AMONG HUNTERS GETTING DEER

One of the youngest hunters to report success on the first day of deer season in this area is Eddie Little, 12-year-old 8th grade student at the Gettysburg Junior High School.

Hunting with his father, William Little, Gettysburg R. 4; two uncles and an older brother, Eddie was the only one in the party to bring down a buck. He shot a 9-pointer near Lewis' Rocks in Cumberland Co. about 10 a.m. The animal dressed 105 pounds.

Eddie, who went deer hunting last year for one Saturday without success, got the last shot Monday at the big buck that had been missed by his father and other members of the party.

Another Big Buck

Another twelve-year-old, William Woodward Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Woodward, Littlestown R. 2, killed a ten-point buck weighing 160 pounds Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock in Cumberland Twp. It was his first hunting trip. Three hours earlier the youth's father, who was with him, killed a six-point 140-pound buck. Other nimrods who reported deer kills Monday or today follow:

Sheldon E. Richardson, Fairfield R. 1, shot a 140-pound deer with seven points at 7:30 a.m. Monday morning in the mountains near Iron Springs.

Gets 224-Pounder

Ronald Helges, South St., killed a spike deer weighing about 110 pounds Monday morning at 9 a.m. near Orrtanna.

Richard James Mills, Gettysburg R. 5, shot a 150-pound spike buck near Mercersburg in Franklin Co. Monday about 11 a.m.

Vincent Onorato, 166 York St., shot a seven-point buck Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock near Mt. Holly Springs. The animal weighed 224 pounds field-dressed.

Student Play On Program For PTA

With a Christmas program planned "for all the family," officers of the Gettysburg Parent-Teachers Association announced plans for the December meeting to be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

There will be a Christmas play, "Rap to Rappaport," with a cast of Seventh graders directed by Miss Alice Snyder. Music and baton twirling also will be included on the program to be presented by pupils of the elementary schools and the junior and senior high school.

Because the program is planned to interest all ages, a previous announcement that there will be movies elsewhere for children has been cancelled. Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria after the program and there will be group singing of Christmas carols.

R. J. KITZMILLER RE-ELECTED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Ray J. Kitzmiller, assistant trust officer at the First National Bank, was re-elected president of the Gettysburg School Board at the annual reorganization of the local directors Monday evening at the high school building.

Mrs. Golda H. Collins, E. Broadway, was re-elected as vice president. Both elections were by acclamation near the close of a one-hour business session.

Board Secretary Robert H. Dear-dorff and Dr. R. D. Wickerham were elected as the board's representatives on the Joint School Committee and these other committee assignments were made to positions held by the respective directors during the last year: Finance and Planning, Mr. Kitzmiller; Teacher, Mrs. Collins; Property, Edward B. Bullett; Transportation, Douglas W. Smith; and Supply, Mrs. Dorothy Nichols.

Site Share Is $25,534

Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe, superintendent of schools, who met with the board, told the directors that Gettysburg's share of the purchase price of the new elementary school site will be $25,534. The land purchase from the county farm property comes up for court approval later this month. Provision for having money available if and when the transfer takes place was discussed.

The board had not met in November and two monthly financial statements from the Gettysburg National Bank were read. The October figures showed tax collections of $31,926 and a $75,000 tuition payment to the joint school district. In November tax receipts came to $5,035 and a state appropriation of $39,572 came in. The balance at the end of November was $93,739 in the general fund.

President Kitzmiller presided at the meeting with three other directors in attendance, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Nichols and Secretary Dear-dorff. The absentees were Mr. Bullett, Mr. Smith and Dr. Wickerham.

MRS. M. BYERS NAMED HEAD OF SUV AUXILIARY

Mrs. Margaret Byers, Biglerville R. D., was elected president of the Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans Monday evening at a meeting at the GAR post home, E. Middle St. She succeeds Mrs. Alice Wetzel.

Others elected were: Vice president, Miss Ruth Miller; secretary, Mrs. Hazel Dillman; treasurer, Mrs. Dora Settle; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Maybelle McKendrick; chaplain, Mrs. Lulu Strassbaugh; guide, Mrs. Louise J. Johnson; assistant guide, Mrs. Marian Bryan; inside guide, Mrs. Sara Keefe; outside guide, Mrs. Grace Turner; color guard number one, Mrs. Dorothy J. Pinko; color guard number two, Mrs. Amanda Walker; press correspondent, Mrs. Pinko; trustees, Mrs. Alice Wetzel, Mrs. McKendrick and Mrs. Mary Warner. They will be installed at the January meeting.

Exchange Gifts

Miss Miller and Mrs. Marian Swisher were elected as delegates to the state convention with Mrs. Geraldine Daugherty and Mrs. Dora Settle as alternates. Mrs. Lulu Strassbaugh was elected delegate to the national convention and Mrs. Bess Kapp as alternate.

Mrs. Gladys V. Rebert, McKnightstown, was introduced as a new member. It was announced that there are 55 members in the auxiliary, 23 of whom were in attendance at Monday's meeting. Mrs. Wetzel, outgoing president, presided.

Christmas gifts were exchanged during the social hour. Mrs. Lulu Strassbaugh won the pig-in-a-poke which was donated by Mrs. Pinko. Chocolate mint ice cream, Yuletide cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Louise J. Johnson, Mrs. Hazel Dillman and Mrs. Pinko.

Mrs. H. F. Baughman's Mother Dies At 92

Mrs. Martha Liller, 92, formerly of Keyser, W. Va., mother of Mrs. Harry F. Baughman, Springs Ave., died Monday in the Chestnut Hill Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Liller spent the last 16 years among her children residing most of the time in Gettysburg. She is survived by six sons and daughters: Mrs. Joseph W. Stayman Sr., James-town, N. Y.; Mrs. Harry F. Baughman, Gettysburg; W. Porter Liller, Wheeling, W. Va.; Mrs. Eloise Renick, Haddonfield, N. J.; C. K. Liller, Atlanta, Ga.; and Mrs. Dakin Morehouse, Keyser, W. Va. There are nine grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren surviving.

A service conducted by the Rev. Herman G. Stuenkel Jr. will be held at the home of Mrs. Baughman on Springs Ave. Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

The service will be private for the family and relatives of Mrs. Liller.

Gives $500 For Hungarian Aid

The Adams County Red Cross Monday received a $500 check toward its $906 quota for Hungarian relief.

Accompanying the check was this note: "I consider it a privilege to help our neighbors, the Hungarians, in their fight for freedom." At the request of the donor, the Red Cross withheld the name in making the announcement.

Other donations total $11 so that the chapter now lacks $395 of reaching its quota in the Red Cross campaign for $5,000,000 for the relief of Hungarians and refugees from that country.

COUNCIL OKAYS PLANS FOR NEW ARMORY HERE

Gettysburg borough council Monday evening at its meeting in the engine house gave its approval to plans of the U.S. Army Reserve program to construct an armory here. Major Allen I. Safstrom, Chambersburg, senior unit advisor for the Army Reserve in this area, asked the resolution of council and urged councilmen to suggest potential sites for the structure.

The Army major told council he needs six sites to show Pennsylvania Military Department and Pentagon officials December 15 or 17 when they come here to select a location for the armory which will house Co. A, 313th Infantry, the local Army Reserve unit. Major Safstrom said the unit now had 71 members, and is seeking to have 100 members by the time the armory is constructed next year.

Sites for the armory contain from 3 1/2 to five acres, must be along water, sewer, gas and electric lines, and must have at least 300 feet frontage on a street or highway. Persons who may have potential sites available were asked to contact M. Sgt. Lester at the American Legion home, Baltimore St. by December 12.

Open To Community

The armory, Major Safstrom said, will be available to the community for any type of activity by non-profit organizations, such as the service clubs, Recreation Association, firemen, etc. He estimated that the armory could be used by local organizations "four nights a week" if they desire. The other nights would be for Reserve program use.

According to the specifications sent by the U.S. Army Reserve to Major Safstrom, the armory is to be in use here by 1959 which indicates (Continued On Page 3)

Mrs. Nellie Arnold, Mummasburg, Dies

Cletus Arnold, Mummasburg, came to his home at noon today from working in the corn field to find his wife body lying on the floor in the kitchen of their home. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, was called and said death was due to a heart attack.

Mrs. Nellie Arnold was 56 years of age.

GETS ALBINO BUCK

Ward Shields, Gettysburg R. 3, shot an albino, four-point, 100-pound buck Monday shortly before noon on the Rosensteel land, south of Round Top. The unusual deer was practically all white with some patches of normal brown hair.

4-H COUNCIL TO MEET

The Adams County 4-H Council will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Arendtsville National Bank.

Brooklyn Pier Blast Shakes City; Kills 9, Injures 247

NEW YORK (AP)—A fire on a Brooklyn pier set off an explosion yesterday that shook the city for miles around. Nine died in the disaster and 247 suffered injuries.

Flames still flickered in the red-hot ruins of the pier today. Fire officials will launch a full-scale probe of the 10-million-dollar blaze.

A dock worker said the fire started about 3:15 p.m. in a pile of foam rubber on the big pier, longest marine terminal in the city. Minute by minute the flames ate toward a mountain of explosive cargo — paint, lacquer, rubber cement, chemicals and fuels.

Felt Blaze 35 Miles

Firemen, dock workers, school boys and other spectators rushed to the scene—unaware of the impending peril.

Suddenly a sheet of flame shot skyward. The blast ripped off the pier shed's metal and glass roof and showered the area with a deadly hail of fragments.

Three Boys Killed

The shock radiated 35 miles from the explosion. Windows were shattered five miles away.

COUNCIL VOTES $5,000 MORE FOR BOROUGH BUDGET

Gettysburg raised its 1956 budget by councilmanic action Monday evening because the town is going to exceed its budget sometime this month.

Last January council adopted a $128,000 budget for 1956. It is going to end the year with expenses of approximately $127,000. To meet that emergency council authorized a $5,000 increase in the budget — making it $133,000 for the year. The extra $5,000 is to come from funds not previously allocated.

Treasurer John H. Basehore explained to council that the increase in the budget was needed because the town has not as yet received the sums it normally receives from the state to help the borough maintain and improve its streets.

For a number of years, Basehore said, the state has provided about $6,000 per year toward Gettysburg streets. That amount is carried in a special account and does not enter the regular budget for the borough. Since the money was not available this year, the money had to come from the regular current expenses budget.

Expect More Next Year

But it was indicated that the town will gain next year as a result. A letter from the state highway department was read which stated that Pennsylvania plans to pay Gettysburg $12,852 toward its street work this year.

Because the money can go only for street work, and because the town has paid for its street work so far, the $12,852, when it arrives, cannot help this year's budgetary excess.

The "healthy surplus" accumulated by the town during the war years, which made it possible to continue with an 11-mill tax rate, is beginning to disappear.

So far this year, Basehore's report shows, the town has spent (Continued On Page 3)

2,400 FARMERS TO GET NOTICES ON ALLOTMENTS

Approximately 2,400 Adams County farmers will receive notice Monday of their individual farm base acreages and allotments for corn prior to the referendum to be held December 11. Roy A. Weaver, chairman of the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

Notices will be mailed to the farmers this Friday so that they will be better able to determine whether they want a base acreage (Soil Bank) program or an acreage allotment program for corn harvested in 1957.

The referendum, to be held in various polling places locally, will be part of the nationwide vote on the type of program the farmers want next year.

Results Important

Chairman Weaver explained that if at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the use of a base acreages (Soil Bank) plan, the national base acreage of corn to be apportioned among producers in the commercial producing areas, such as Adams County, will be 51 million acres, as set by law. In this case price support will be available in the commercial counties at a national average of $1.31 a bushel, representing 74 per cent of the October 15, 1956, corn parity price of $1.77 a bushel.

Plan Essay Contest

Lawrence M. Shields reported progress on the annual American Legion essay contest in the high schools.

Membership for 1957 was reported as 438 and it was announced that starting Wednesday weekly awards made by the post will be based on 1957 membership only.

The post voted to send Christmas gifts to all members who may be in hospitals over Christmas and voted to provide articles for "Mother Clark" of Thurmont. Mrs. Charles H. Clark, Thurmont, mother of 24 children, has since 1942 visited the veterans' hospitals in the area at Christmas time and has distributed gifts provided from her own funds and by various Legion and VFW organizations and others in the area. The local American Legion has provided gifts for her to distribute for the last several years.

ments—a program similar to the one in force the last several years—the national corn allotment will be 37,238,889 acres for the 894 county commercial corn-producing area in 24 states and the price support will be available in the commercial counties at a national average of $1.36 per bushel, representing 77 per cent of the October 15 corn parity price.

The 1957-crop allotment figures compare with the 1956-crop allotment of 43,280,543 acres for 840 counties. Thus the share this year per county will be about 16 per cent smaller than the 1956 allotment, but individual county and farm allotments would vary from the percentage because of acreage trends, crop rotation and other factors.

It was explained that there are no plans at present to offer price support for the 1957 corn production which is not either in compliance with acreage allotments or soil bank provisions.

Former Resident Of County Dies In N. Y.

Paul Clapsadl, aged about 25, died Sunday morning at his home in Avon, N. Y., following a long illness.

He was the son of Frank and Edith (Culp) Clapsadl. Mr. Clapsadl formerly resided in Buchanan Valley and his wife in Gettysburg.

In addition to his parents, the deceased is survived by a brother, John, and three sisters, Mrs. James Baker, Joan and Jane Clapsadl.

The Adams County Fish and Game Auxiliary will hold a Christmas party Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Maybelle McKenrick, R. 4. Those who have not made reservations are asked to do so as a once.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary planning to attend the Four-County Council meeting Thursday in Shiloh, near York, are asked to meet that morning at 8:45 o'clock at the Gettysburg YWCA.

A rehearsal will be held for the children in the beginners' department of St. James Lutheran Church Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the church. The children will participate in the Christmas party program at the church.

A Christmas banquet was held by the NCOW of St. Joseph's Church, Bonneauville, Monday evening at 7 o'clock at Weaver's Restaurant, Bonneauville, with 23 members in attendance. After dinner the school children presented a playlet and carols were sung. Rev. Fr. Leo J. Krichen, pastor, spoke briefly. Members exchanged gifts.

Seventeen members of the Carrie McMillan Buck Circle of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. William Wavell Monday evening. Mrs. George Naugle led devotions on the Christmas theme.

At the business session the members made plans to serve dinner December 12 to the county township supervisors' association. Mrs. Lila Craig reported she had sent birthday cards to two home missionaries and a letter was read from Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller in Nepal, India. Two new members were announced and Mrs. Robert Berkheimer reviewed the second chapter of the book "Missions In The U.S.A." Thirty-one home visits by circle members were reported. Refreshments and a social hour followed the meeting.

Members of Brownie Troop 57 worked on Christmas presents for their mothers at a meeting Monday afternoon at Christ Lutheran Church. Littlestown SCHOOL BAND PLANS CONCERT FOR DIRECTORS

Paul A. Harner, instrumental music supervisor of the Littlestown Joint School System, has announced that the high school band will present a concert at the annual convention of the Adams County School Directors Association on Friday morning at the Rolling Acres Elementary School. The band will also march in Littlestown's Christmas parade on Friday at 7:30 p.m. The LHS band participated in the Christmas parade at Biglerville last Wednesday night.

Last Wednesday evening, 60 members of the LHS Band went to Eichelberger Senior High School, Hanover, to hear the concert given by the United States Air Force Band of Washington, D. C., under the direction of Col. George S. Howard. During the evening, Mr. Harner, who is a native of Hanover and is also a member of the American Band Masters Association, was chosen to direct the Air Force Band for the rendition of the march "National Emblem." Mr. Harner attended the Pennsylvania Music convention, held in Harrisburg last Thursday and Friday. Over 800 state music instructors were present. The convention was climaxed with a program by the U.S. Air Force Band in the education building, Friday evening.

A CHILDREN'S WORLD

Regardless of how large or small . . . a family may be . . . the children have a ruling voice . . . yes, to a large degree . . . by this I do not mean that they . . . tell parents what to do . . . though some are prone to try it . . . It's sad but very true . . . what I am getting at is this . . . each family is run . . . around the needs of children who . . . fill life with tears and fun . . . in other words, they constitute . . . the power behind the throne . . . often making Dad and Mother . . . glad to be alone . . . still, without children life would be . . . a far less happy thing . . . their tender love gives weary hearts . . . a joyful song to sing . . . they fill the years with faith and hope . . . true love is their reward . . . indeed this is a children's world . . . they wield a mighty sword.

Brooklyn Pier

Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanagh Jr. said he would start a "thorough and scientific investigation immediately."

He said the FBI, police and other agencies are "investigating the possibility of sabotage."

Tow Ships To Safety

The blast lifted Cavanagh off his feet and spun him around. He escaped uninjured.

The explosion also knocked seven men off a city fireboat. Rescuers fished them from the water. Flames scorched nearby piers. Five ships were towed to safety.

Eyewitness Account

An eyewitness, William Langueker, 51, described the explosion this way:

"All we could see was black smoke, when suddenly it turned into an inferno. A solid sheet of flames at least two city blocks wide and half as high as the Empire State Building roared up."

The dead were John Balut, 13; Ciro Balzano, 56; Benny Cuccio, 40; Frank Lopez, 9; James J. McCullough, 43; William Thompson, 13; Frank Romeo, 45; James A. Smith, 69; and Biaggi Valenza, 47.

McCullough was from Maywood, N.J., the others from Brooklyn.

Sparks Fire Truck, Car

Black smoke churned and billowed 3,000 feet into the blue sky after the explosion.

The shower of flaming fragments set fire to a truck and car several blocks away.

Piaster cracked and fell and windows shattered in uncounted homes and stores in the neighborhood. The worst damage was within a three-block radius of the

Among the sites that will be suggested to the armed forces will be land near the present National Guard Armory. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, borough engineer, in discussing with the council potential sites, said he plans to suggest land owned by him near the McMillan House land as a potential site.

The area is a bleak section of industrial, loft and warehouse buildings.

Fifty-two factory workers were cut by flying glass at an instrument plant about 500 yards from the pier. Forty others were hurt a food factory nearby.

$10 Million Damage

Vincent O'Connor, city commissioner of marine and aviation, made a preliminary damage estimate of 10 million dollars. The final total may be even higher.

A huge outpouring of manpower and equipment sped to the scene of the nine-alarm blaze.

More than 300 firemen, with 70 pieces of apparatus, 250 policemen and scores of physicians, nurses and civilian volunteers swarmed to the pier.

Eight fireboats shot streams of water on the leaping flames.

Two Coast Guard helicopters whirled over the inferno, flashing radio directions to the fireboats below.

Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Edward Silver said authorities were in the dark as to what started the fire. But he said a grand jury would be called "if necessary" to find out.

NEW PAINTING

Council's custom since adoption of a master plan for development of The Tiber has been to accept properly constructed retaining walls along the creek as part of the borough system and after their construction by the property owners the town maintains the walls.

Extend Resolution

Approval was given to the placing of a street light on Johns St. following a report that the street has been completed and a number of houses built in the area.

A resolution passed in 1946 to permit the placing of temporary buildings at Gettysburg college for the housing of students was renewed for one year. The ordinance originally covered a ten year period and expires December 31, 1956. Under provision of the resolution of the penal portions of the borough's building code would not affect buildings on the college campus during the period the resolution is in effect. According to discussion of council, the structures are to be removed when the college no longer needs the frame buildings, made from former army barracks, along W. Lincoln Ave.

Councilman John Millard reported that he had "secured a definite promise" from the state Department of Forests and Waters to have a specialist here to help the town in solving an overflow problem in connection with Winebrenner Run.

Police Chief Reports

The report of Chief of Police Jack Bartlett showed the officers made 28 traffic arrests and 18 arrests on criminal charges during November. Eight accidents and 182 complaints were investigated, 24 escorts provided, and 38 assistances given other departments. Three bicycles were reported lost and three recovered; one stolen car was recovered. Seven wallets were reported lost and none were recovered.

A donation of $275 was made to the Warner Hospital, the salary of one of the councilmen.

A letter from P. M. Tussing complaining of what he called a dangerous condition at the Western Maryland Railway crossing at Fourth St. was read. Tussing said that it is impossible for north-bound auto drivers to see oncoming trains until the drivers are almost on the tracks.

Asks New Alley

A letter from the Gettysburg Planning Commission signed by Mrs. F. E. Craver Jr., secretary, announced that the planning commission had studied the planned extension of Howard Ave. south-east from Prince St. and a new street to extend northwest from Howard Ave. and recommended that since the proposed street would be a dead end that an alley be constructed west from Ridge Ave. to the proposed street.

Borough Engineer Winebrenner said the alley could not be constructed because the land over which it would be placed will be used by the National Guard in constructing another building next year.

The letter also stated that the commission had received no response directly to its request in October that council expend possibly $10,000 for professional planning services, and that a council committee appointed to meet with the planning commission on the matter had not reported to the commission. Councilman Philip Jones, chairman of the council committee, said he had spoken to commission members about the joint meeting and had been told that he would be notified when the commission wished to meet.

$119,756.22 and has a balance of $24,728.76 as of December 1. With the town spending about $10,000 a month there was a question of whether that balance will "spread out" until taxes begin to be received late next spring.

While there will be income during the winter months, Treasurer Baschore observed that meter fund collections, a mainstay of finances, decline during the winter months when there are fewer tourists and less use of the meters.

$11,490 Expenditures

During November income totalled $6,333.93 of which $1,882.90 came from the meter fund, $25 from Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, $24.71 from insurance and $4,401.32 from collections by Burgess William G. Weaver.

Expenditures totalled $11,490.72 of which $947.85 went for general government, $2,952.10 for protection to persons and property, $50 for health and sanitation, $4,888.27 for highways, $1,000 miscellaneous and $1,652.50 for lights. So far this year the town has spent $11,151.02 for general government, $41,665.44 for protection to persons and property, $3,573.11 for health and sanitation, $46,889.17 for highways, $7,243.88 miscellaneous and $9,233.60 lights.

Burgess Weaver's report showed $186 collected for parking fines, $167 for 12 building permits, $3,532.50 for 44 digging permits, $75 from garbage collectors licenses, $85.50 from rental of borough machinery, and $330.47 theater tax. During the month eight building permits were issued for construction of buildings estimated as costing $606,100, Weaver said.

YOU ENJOY INCREASED HEADROOM—made possible by recessing the floor within the frame, and by the unique, straight-line design of the roof. Mercury's outside height is a sleek, shoulder-high 4 feet 8 inches.

Texas-big all over! Far longer, wider! Bigger in every important dimension!

Here, by far, is the most spacious Mercury ever built. Even with 6 big passengers, there is no "hemmed in" feeling. There's move-around comfort for all.

BIGGEST SIZE INCREASE IN THE INDUSTRY—The new Mercury is over 17½ feet long, more than 6½ feet wide. Close to 2 tons big. The doors are much wider for easier entrance and exit. The passenger compartment alone is almost 9 feet long. Headroom has been generously increased. THE BIG M is family-car big—with much more leg room, shoulder room, and elbow room for all the family.

FAR GREATER VISION—You are surrounded with up to 4,122 square inches of glass—more glass area than a picture window 3 feet by 9 feet. The corner posts are so slim you scarcely know they're there.

DREAM-CAR STYLED—A new look shared by no other car. Clean-cut, lean, dynamic, it will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

BIGGEST VALUE INCREASE IN THE INDUSTRY—Never before has so much bigness and luxury cost so little. Check the price tags—and our easy terms—at our showroom. You will be amazed at how little more it costs down—and per month—for a big new Mercury than for the lowest priced cars.

YOU'LL SEE DREAM-CAR FEATURES WHEREVER YOU LOOK

- V-angle Tail-lights, Jet-Flo Bumpers, Color-keyed Rear Projectiles
- Merc-O-Matic Keyboard Control that outdates ordinary push-button transmissions
- Power seat that "remembers" your favorite driving position
- Power-Booster Fan, in Montclair series, saves power other cars waste
- Full-Cushion shock absorbers and 3 other bump-smothering advances give you Mercury's exclusive Floating Ride

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Teachers' Institute: A Very Successful Gathering Of County Educators — Able Instructors Impart New Ideas — Tuesday Afternoon — Music by Institute, "Boat Song," "Loving Words," "Leaf of the Roses Fall."

Dr. Ellis discussed "The Teacher's Attitude." The teacher's criticism often discourages the pupil and he fails to gain any benefit by it. So take the work of the child to give encouragement instead of discouragement. When work is worthy of praise do not fail to give it. The teacher should be more than a guide post to knowledge.

Superintendent Roth introduced Dr. F. S. Lowden, of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., who based his address on "Common Sense in Disciplining Children and Adolescents."

Tuesday Evening: The second evening entertainment, given by the De Koven Male Quartette, was a most enjoyable one to lovers of music. The selections were of a high character and were well rendered. The recitations by Miss Van Horn were also pleasing. Thursday Evening: A large house greeted "The Musical Five" Thursday evening and all went away delighted.

Friday Afternoon: Dr. Ferris expressed his thanks to the Institute for the many courtesies shown him during his week's work in Gettysburg. He based his afternoon talk on the study of Human Nature in the public school.

Deaths And Funerals: Mrs. Catharine Artzberger, widow of Charles Artzberger, died at her home on Stratton street, this place, Monday evening, Nov. 26, aged 82 years and 1 month. Deceased and her husband, the latter having died about fifteen years ago, lived for many years on the corner of Franklin and West Middle streets, in the house recently razed by Frank Deardorff.

Mrs. Artzberger is survived by one sister, Mrs. Henry Barbehenn, residing on South Washington street. Funeral was held Wednesday afternoon.

Morrow: William B. Morrow died at the home of his father-in-law, Franklin Rosensteel, at Round Top, on Friday, of tuberculosis, aged 28 years, 3 months and 9 days.

Deceased had been a sufferer from the disease for several years. He spent some time at a sanitarium prior to coming to Mr. Rosensteel's, but derived little benefit. He is survived by his wife, parents and two brothers. Funeral was held Monday afternoon with interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

Gallagher: Ex-County Treasurer William K. Gallagher died at his home on Baltimore St., at 11:30 o'clock Friday morning, from the effects of injuries received in a fall a short time ago, and from infirmities due to old age, aged 80 years, 5 months and 22 days.

Deceased was one of Gettysburg's oldest, most highly esteemed citizens. Mr. Gallagher was a coachmaker by trade and for many years carried on the business in this place. Throughout his long life he was a prominent figure in the affairs of the county, of which he was elected County Treasurer in 1874 on the Democratic ticket, which office he filled with great credit. For many years he was engaged in the tree business, covering an extensive territory. Deceased is survived by four daughters and one son. Funeral was held Monday afternoon from his late residence, Dr. J. A. Clutz conducting the service.

Thanksgiving Day: Thursday proved to be one of the most beautiful Thanksgiving days for years. The day in Gettysburg opened with Sun Rise Services in Christ Lutheran Church by the C. E. Societies. As noted Union Services were held in the Methodist Church, Rev. Houseman, of the U. B. church, delivering an appropriate sermon.

In the afternoon the firemen enlivened the town with a parade. After the parade the engine "Silsby" was attached to the plug at Spangler's corner and the new nozzle, recently purchased, was tested, which proved very satisfactory.

Today's Talk

FOR LOVE OF SIMPLE THINGS

In the course of a long life we are given many choices. Some of these choices turn out to have been mistakes. Try as we will we cannot always choose the right ones. We may have had wide experiences, but as life's evening approaches, our love is for the simple things. No boasts or material embellishments.

Our greatest gift to those who follow us is the same as we gained in early life — a love for the simple things, as enjoyed by us and as those about us celebrated them.

Why is it that if you give a child a dozen or so playthings, some simple and inexpensive, and others that are elaborate and expensive, he will so often select the simple toys? How much happier those people are who live the simple, clean life devoid of all show.

Most of the endless gifts that the Good Lord has bequeathed to mankind have been simple ones. His flowers, shrubbery, birds, pond lilies, and oh, a thousand other things. But He buried deep the treasures of gold, silver, and lesser minerals, and made man dig for them. This applying to precious stones as well as all else hidden there.

During the ministry of Jesus he traveled in simple garb. So did his disciples. And we have no record of any elaborate home of His. The great of this earth have been simple living people, caring more for ideals and the beauty of this earth than anything else with large displays.

It is for the love of simple things that we are inspired. A snowflake, a spider's web, a hummingbird's nest, a gorgeous butterfly, or one of those tiny orchids that I once saw hanging in a great cluster from a tree on an estate in Hawaii. The big things often bluster and make a big noise, but the simple things give out their beauty and fragrance without notice.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Retiring". Protected, 1956, by the George Matthew Adams Service

Death of Mrs. McPherson: Mrs. Annie Crawford McPherson, widow of the late Hon. Edward McPherson, died at her home on Carlisle street Friday night shortly after ten o'clock, aged 72 years, 10 months and 24 days. While for nearly ten months Mrs. McPherson had been confined to her room, much of that time to her bed, she became critically ill only on Friday morning, from which time she grew rapidly worse until the end came peacefully that night, pneumonia being the immediate cause.

Mrs. McPherson, daughter of John S. and Harriet Paxton Crawford, was born January 6, 1834, at the Crawford homestead in Cumberland township and was educated at "Thorndale," the school of the Misses Birney, near Taneytown, Maryland.

Mrs. McPherson is survived by four sons and one daughter, John Bruce, of Boston, Mass., Secretary of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers; William L. of New York City, on the staff of the "New York Tribune"; Norman C. McPherson, electrical engineer, of Pittsburgh; Donald P. McPherson, Esq., of this place, and Mrs. David Dale, of Bellefonte, Penna.

Santa and the SECRET ROOM

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

CHAPTER ONE

THE SOLDIERS CALL

Listen, now, and I'll tell you the strangest story ever told. A story of giants and elves and a pot of gold; of a lost princess and a secret room and Santa Claus in trouble.

There are folks who'll say none of this is true. But they're wrong. It's all true. I know. Because I was there and I saw it all.

My name is Alexander. I have seven brothers and seven sisters. I'm the youngest. I have no ma and no pa but my sisters and brothers take care of me.

We live in a little old house at the end of a crooked road. My sisters sleep in the house while we boys bed down in the barn.

My story begins on a snowy, windy night just before Christmas. We were all gathered around the fire in the kitchen the way we always do at close of day.

Amanda, my oldest sister, was reading us a story about Santa Claus and how he had saved the life of a boy who had never believed in Santa.

The rest of us were stringing cranberries and making colored paper ropes to hang on our Christmas tree. It was nice and warm and loving in that kitchen by the fire. I was happy just lying there on my back listening to the story and thinking about the marshmallows we would be toasting by and by.

Suddenly there was a bang, bang, bang at the open door and a voice shouting, "Open up in the name of the King!"

My sister dropped her book. No one else moved because, honest, I don't know how long it had been since anyone had come knocking at our door!

Bang, bang, bang came the knocking again.

Amanda said quietly, "Best to see what it is, Thomas."

So Thomas, my oldest brother, pulled back the bolt and opened the door. Three great, big soldiers marched right in. My eyes nearly popped from my head. I'd never been that close to soldiers before.

They lined us up three deep by the kitchen wall and asked us our names and ages and where we'd spent the day. Then the biggest soldier took a paper from his pocket and began to read.

"Princess Anne has been kidnapped from the royal palace. The King commands all his people to search for the kidnapper and recover his daughter without delay."

After that the soldiers stomped out of the house. We all began to talk at once.

"What a shame! What a horror!" exclaimed my sisters. "The poor little thing!"

"Whoever took her would be far away by now," said my brothers. "They'd never dare to stay in the kingdom."

"What about Christmas?" I cried. "Will we have Christmas just the same?"

"Oh, Alexander," said Amanda. "Of course we will!"

They kept on talking and it was much, much later than usual when Thomas finally said, "Time for bed, Alexander. Get to the barn. I always have to go when he says it's time, so I took the lantern and ran quickly to the barn."

But when I got to the barn I'd hardly put my foot in the doorway when I stopped in my tracks. Plain as day I heard breathing inside!

It wasn't the cow and it wasn't the hens or the hog. It was a person breathing. I knew cause there's a difference between man and beast that you can feel inside of you, even when you can't see at all.

Quick as a lick I knew what it was.

"It's the kidnapper!" I thought. "He's hiding inside!"

WILL DISPLAY
NEW CADILLAC
ON SATURDAY

DETROIT — The Cadillac Eldorado brougham, an all-new five-passenger super luxury sedan, now is in limited production, it was announced today by Don E. Ahrens, Cadillac general manager and vice president of General Motors.

This car will make its debut at the National Automobile Show in New York's Coliseum December 8-16. Public introduction will be held in key cities throughout the United States after February 1, 1957.

"The word 'first' has been synonymous with Cadillac since its beginning in 1902," Ahrens said, "And the brougham, with completely new styling and numerous engineering features never before incorporated in any car, marks one of the most important 'firsts' in automobile history." Completely modern in every detail the grace and sleekness of the brougham is accentuated by its pillarless four-door styling, and extremely low over-all height of 55.5 inches and a roof of stainless steel.

Engineering Features

Among the outstanding engineering features in the brougham are the first air suspension system ever built into an automobile, the first true four headlamp system and Cadillac's revolutionary tubular center X-frame.

Built on a 126-inch wheelbase the brougham is 216 inches long and 78 1/2 inches wide.

Powering this customized car will be a 325 horsepower high performance Cadillac engine with twin 4-barrel carburetors. This V-type overhead valve engine has a 10 to 1 compression ratio, a 4-inch bore and

Fail To Subdue HungariansBy LYNN HEINZERLING
VIENNA (AP)—The revolt against Moscow's dictation which blazed so brightly under the Russian guns just a month ago today still smolders in neighboring Hungary.

The spectacular bid for freedom took unknown thousands of lives and may have showered its sparks into neighboring dictatorships, including that of the Soviet Union itself.

Using all the modern paraphernalia of Communist persuasion — tanks, guns, prisons and sealed deportation trains — the Russians have been unable to stifle the spirit which toppled Stalin's statue the night of Oct. 23 and sent boys and girls with rifles against T34 tanks on Nov. 4.

The lodge operator isn't sure whether it's because Taku Tillie loves the hand-outs at the resort so much or because she is a moose with moxie. About a dozen moose were bagged by hunters in the area during the summer.

SMART IS REAL HUSKY NOW

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Doug Smart, who made a practice of smashing all of Bruno Boin's basketball scoring records in high school and then as a University of Washington freshman, has added 25 pounds to his 6 foot 7 frame since last season. He now goes 240.

weight of their numbers and arms. They have deported uncounted hundreds of Hungarians and sent more than 110,000 seeking asylum in the West.

But they have won very few converts for the government of Premier Janos Kadar, a supposedly "liberal" Communist thrust in as front man for the Russian dictatorship on that bloody Sunday a month ago.

Fighting is still reported between rebel guerrilla groups and Russian troops in the Hungarian countryside. Many of these reports apparently grow out of poor or nonexistent communications with Budapest. There are no reliable indications of any military action comparable with the fighting of late October and early November.

Want Voice On Policy
The new strength of the freedom fighters lies chiefly in the hands of the workers and students, who spearheaded the rebellion. The workers, through the formation of councils on the Titoist pattern, have been demanding a greater voice in policy making than is accorded in any "people's democracy."

They have insisted and still insist on the withdrawal of Russian troops and the restoration of former Premier Imre Nagy, who promised them free elections and the Soviet withdrawal. The Kadar government rejected these demands, although the puppet premier agreed to negotiate for Russian withdrawal after order has been restored.

It was announced officially that Nagy had asked 50 persons in his party had asked to go to Romania and had been sent there. This has never been confirmed.

Schoolboy Cage Program Hits New High As Delone, Fairfield And Littlestown Open Tonight

Scholastic basketball swings into high gear locally this week as three more county schools see action for the first time — Delone Catholic, Fairfield and Littlestown.

Delone, with six senior lettermen, meet the Cadets at Scotland this evening. The Squires have two 6-2 veterans nursing gridiron injuries which will curtail their activity. They are Richie Hemler and Joe Poist. Other letters ready for duty include Phil Staub 6-3, Edgar Roth 5-10, Charlie Weaver 6-1, and Jim Strazella 5-10. Completing the squad will be five juniors, Tom Staub 6-1, Frank Keffer 6-0, Bucky Washington, Rafael Snyder and Jack Bevenour; sophomores, Johnny Gastley, Joe Keffer, Lawrence Miller and George Thumassy.

Fairfield also opens tonight, hosting the Emmitsburg boys and girls in a twin bill. Coach Johnny McAndrews has two letter winners from last year, Kenny Kuykendall 5-11 and Jimmy Musselman 6-1, both seniors. Bill Renner and Jim Cool, 5-10 juniors, were members of the squad last season.

Littlestown entertains Dallastown, rated as the top contender for the York Scholastic League title this year tonight. Coach Wil Gobrecht has only two lettermen, Al Snyder, guard, and Kenny Kooztz, forward. Kooztz will probably miss the game due to an infected blister.

Other candidates for varsity berths include Dick Horner, John Shomper, Mike Cookson, Clyde Fuhrman, Larry White, Jack Bushey, Ted Williams, John Groff, Allen King and Tony Matland.

Other games tonight include York Springs (0-2) at Quincy, Biglerville (0-1) at Shippensburg, East Berlin (0-2) at Dover, and Glen Rock at New Oxford (0-1). The York Springs girls also play tonight.

Thursday's game, Kennard-Dale at Littlestown.

Friday's games, Dover at York Springs, Spring Grove at Biglerville, West York at East Berlin, Taneytown at Fairfield, Red Lion at New Oxford.

SAYS U. S. PLAN IN MIDDLE EAST IS LEFT VAGUE

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Eisenhower administration has any plan or policy for filling the vacuum left in the Middle East by the pathetic performance of the British and French, it hasn't been seen or stated yet.

Yet a clearly stated policy, which can be a rallying point for the chaotic Arab world and at the same time is understood unmistakably by American allies and Russia, is needed unless the Middle East is to be left to drift.

The Russians would like to fill the vacuum. Fortunately the Russians have given this country time to formulate a policy. Their barbarians in Hungary were a warning to the Arabs what to expect if they became Soviet satellites.

Rallying Point
Both the Truman and Eisenhower administrations had an opportunity in the postwar decade to make this country a rallying point for the people struggling out of colonialism by speaking out repeatedly against colonialism.

Neither administration did much of that although both opposed colonialism. In other circumstances both no doubt would have done more talking against it.

But this country needed its two principal allies, Britain and France, which, with the exception of Russia, are the biggest colonial powers. Apparently both administrations feared too much anti-colonial talk might wreck the alliance.

There is no clearer example of the lack of a thought-out policy in dealing with the Middle East than Secretary of State Dulles' handling of Egyptian President Nasser. First he hemmed and hawed on letting Nasser have arms.

Loan To Egypt
When Nasser then turned to the Communists for them, Dulles got busy on arranging a loan to Egypt to build a dam. In the end he refused the loan in such a way that he infuriated Nasser, who a few days later seized the Suez Canal.

The hope of the Truman and Eisenhower administrations seemed to be that colonialism was withering away and that meanwhile American economic help to newly freed peoples would show them where the American heart was.

Things didn't work out that smoothly.

Imperialistic Powers
Those old imperialistic powers,

The Seminary Saints and the Navy team from Camp David scored victories Monday evening as the Community Basketball League opened its season in the Gettysburg High School gymnasium.

In the opening game the Seminary spurred in the second quarter to take a 24-12 lead and then held on after fighting off a rally of the Pastrymen in the third period for a 40-34 triumph. Mayberry led the winners with 25 points while Reese sparked the losers with 26.

Scoring was at a minimum in the second game as Navy topped Sonny's Lunch 26-24. Building up a 25-15 lead at the end of three periods, the Navy clung to its lead despite being blanked in the final quarter. Borchers connected for 14 points for the Navy and Jacobs looped seven for the Lunchmen.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

NEW ORLEANS—Neal Rivers, 159, Las Vegas, outpointed Charley Joseph, 159, New Orleans, 10, MIAMI, Fla. — Bobby Lane, 169½, Kannapolis, N.C., knocked out Billy Kilgore, 174, Miami, 4.

PITTSBURGH—Wayne Dawson, 144, Youngstown, Ohio, outpointed L. C. Morgan, 141, Youngstown, Ohio, 10.

The British and French, when frustrated by Nasser's seizure of the canal, acted like old imperialistic powers. They were bigger than Egypt so they attacked it. But they forgot something: They were able to get away with the rough stuff only in other years when they were truly No. 1 powers.

But now, as they proved by what followed, they were second raters.

They agreed to withdraw when the truly No. 1 powers now — the United States and Russia, plus the United Nations — put the heat on them to back up.

Embitters Arabs
The attack on Egypt was enough to embitter all Arabs. Then the reversal of the British and French showing them to be second raters, was catastrophic on their influence in the Arab world. Thus a vacuum was created.

The United States gained stature by lining up with the Arabs and demanding Britain and France end the fighting and get out of Egypt. This should increase confidence in this country by smaller nations everywhere.

But still this was only a specific policy to meet a specific situation. The French and British quit fighting and now promise to get out of Egypt. What does the United States do now?

BILL DEWITT TAKES JOB OF AIDING MINORS

By MERCER BAILEY

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—William O. (Bill) DeWitt, one of the most capable executives in baseball, stepped into one of the game's most challenging jobs today as administrator of the major leagues' $500,000 giveaway program to aid the minors.

The 54-year-old former owner of the St. Louis Browns was selected yesterday by a special major-minor committee headed by John Quinn, general manager of the Milwaukee Braves.

He is resigning as assistant general manager of the New York Yankees to administer the fund created by the majors as the first concrete step toward assisting minor league clubs which need money aid.

8-Player Trade
A flurry of major league actions dominated the opening session of the minor league convention. An eight-player trade between Detroit and Kansas City highlighted off-the-floor activity. And the majors snapped up nine minor league players for a total outlay of $100,000 in the highest draft since World War II.

The Brooklyn Dodgers—to the surprise of no one — extended Manager Walter Alston's contract for another year, reportedly giving him a $4,000 pay hike to $36,000. And the Cleveland Indians signed fiery Eddie Sanky, former St. Louis Cardinals manager, as a coach.

Tax Angle Involved

In the big trade, Detroit got infielders Jim Finigan and Eddie Robinson, pitcher Ed Blake and an undisclosed amount of cash from the Athletics in exchange for pitchers Virgil Trucks, Ned Garver and Gene Holt and first baseman Wayne Belard. Also as part of the deal, the A's agreed to sell right-hander Bill Harrington, 3-5 at Columbus last season, to the Tigers' Charleston farm club.

The majors' aid-to-the minors program can't begin immediately. The 16 major league teams have asked the Internal Revenue Service to rule on whether the money they put into the fund can be deducted as an operating expense, which would make it tax-free. If the federal government says no, the majors aren't ready to say yet what will happen to the aid program.

CHAMBERLAIN SETS RECORDS IN HIS DEBUT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt Chamberlain no longer is just a wild myth. He really is a stringbean shadow of a guy who scores basketball points like a kid gulps chocolate.

The Kansas Jayhawks have him, all seven feet of him, and Wilt was never in better appetite than when he chewed up both the school's offensive and defensive records in a debut last night that produced an 87-69 victory over Northwestern, one of the Big Ten favorites.

The final count was 52 points scored and 31 rebounds plucked off the boards for the young Philadelphia many believe will become the greatest big man in basketball history.

Big Seven Looks Good

Chamberlain's arrival was only one part of a night's development that indicated that the Big Seven conference, which has its trouble finding football opposition for big brother Oklahoma, is in shape to meet all comers on the basketball court.

For while long Wilt was treating a season-opening crowd of 15,000 at Lawrence, Kan., little Gary Thompson was firing in 35 points as Iowa State whipped Houston 92-73, Nebraska was pounding defending Big Ten champion Iowa 67-43, and Colorado was beating highly favored Oregon State 67-58.

Kentucky with Vernon Hatten scoring 29 points, crushed Miami of Florida 114-75. Frank Howard scored 29 and controlled both backboards as Ohio State defeated Pitt 100-69. Butler handed Wisconsin its second straight loss 54-50. Alabama turned up a new ace in Jack Kubiszyn in debating 102-56 over Jacksonville (Ala.) Teachers.

The University of Maine football team entered the 1956 season with 24 victories, 9 setbacks and 3 ties under Coach Harold Westerman in five campaigns.

Bullets Collapse In Final Minutes To Lose 85-75 To Blue Jays; Georgetown Next

After a nip and tuck see-saw battle throughout the first 33 minutes of play, the Gettysburg College eagles fell behind in the closing minutes and dropped an 84-75 decision to the veteran Elizabethtown dribblers here Monday evening.

It was the second straight setback for the inexperienced and sophomore-laden Bullet squad who showed vast improvement over their performance in losing to Temple at Philadelphia Saturday evening.

The Bullets go to Washington, D. C. Wednesday evening to take on the perennially strong Georgetown University outfit.

A little more efficiency from the free throw lane during the first three-fourths of Monday's contest could well have tipped the scales in favor of the Bullets. Time and again they blew chances to pile up substantial margins.

Lead At Half
Bob Davies' boys scored first on a goal by Del Warfel and enjoyed their biggest edge after 6:10 minutes at 13-6 following goals by Warfel and Frank Grzelecki. The lead seceded from then on out in the half, Elizabethtown going ahead 14-13 before Tim Cousins dropped in a pair of twin-counters. It was tied at 18-18 and then the Bullets led from two to four points until Sal Paone landed a goal and Jim Sarbaugh a foul to send the Blue Jays ahead 32-31. With eight seconds remaining in the half Art Beck scored from underneath to give Gettysburg a scant 35-34 halftime lead.

The lead changed hands twice in the early moments of the second half before Elizabethtown went ahead 39-38 after 2:16 minutes. The Blue Jays held a narrow lead until Cousins put the Bullets in front on a set shot 46-45 after 7:51. Again the lead changed hands several times and Gettysburg held its final lead at 55-53 on Grzelecki's layup after 11:48. Elizabethtown took the advantage at 57-55 on four straight foul conversions by Sarbaugh and from then on out led as the visitors broke away for several easy shots as the Bullets tried to break up the stalling play of their opponents.

Cousins Gets 14
Cousins, 6-8 Bullet center, paced his team's attack with 14 points with Walsack and Grzelecki chipping in with 12 and 10. Sarbaugh and Paone were the big guns in the Blue Jay offense with 21 and 19, while the fine defensive play of Jim Chase, former Chambersburg High ace, played an important role in the win for the invaders.

Cleveland's Elik Takes Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Cleveland's high-scoring rookie, Bo Elik, opened a three-point margin on his nearest competitor last week as he boosted his American Hockey League point total to 36.

Elik amassed six points during the past week, four on goals to also retain his goal-scoring lead and now has 23.

In other departments, Jimmy Moore of Cleveland held his assist leadership with 24, Larry Zeidel of Hershey became the penalty leader with 88 minutes served, and Providence's Johnny Bower remained the most stingy goalie with a 2.53 goals against average.

Capitani Receives All-East Mention

Frank Capitani, Gettysburg College's star junior fullback, was given an honorable mention in the 1956 Associated Press All-East selections announced Monday.

Three Bullet opponents during the past season also had players honored. Austin Short, Lehigh, was named as a second team end. Among the honorable mentions were Llewellyn Williams, tackle, Don Nolan and Bob Naylor, backs, all of Lehigh; George Lloyd, tackle, Lafayette, and Don Koppes, back, Bucknell.

Blame Part Of Lost Trout On Polluted Creek

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state fish commission estimated today that 8 to 10 per cent of the trout on the state's stream re-stocking program for 1957 was lost through a wholesale destruction of fish in Centre County.

The commission said that approximately 175,000 fish were killed in Spring Creek from pollution of an undetermined source. As commission and health experts sought to pin down the source, C. Robert Glover, commission conservation chief, said the quantity of ammonia found in the water indicated that "whoever released it was aware of it."

Trace Source
Glover said the source of the deadly ammonia has been traced to the general area of State College but whether it was in the area of the borough itself or University Park, where the Pennsylvania State University is located has yet to be determined.

University officials said yesterday that no evidence has been found of any university activity that would produce any poison in the sewer system. Samples from all drains into sewers were taken for analysis.

Glover said it was established that the fish kill was caused by ammonia but he declined to estimate how much of the fluid was used.

Suspect Sink
The conservation education chief disclosed that an ice skating rink at the university was suspected but that actual tests cleared that facility of the responsibility. He said the nuclear reactor at Penn State also was ruled out as the possible source.

Most of the damage occurred along Thomson Run and Spring Creek. By the time the pollution reached Bald Eagle Creek, its deadly quality was diluted.

NAME SOONERS TOP FOOTBALL TEAM IN NATION

By ORLO ROBERTSON

The Associated Press, 187 sports writers and broadcasters gave the Sooners a total of 1,715 votes compared with 1,618 for the second-place Tennessee Volunteers, who are headed for the Sugar Bowl after an unblemished record in 10 games.

The Sooners, who retired the Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C. Memorial Trophy, were placed first on 104 ballots. Tennessee received 44 first-place votes. The others were scattered among seven teams, topped by Iowa's 13 and Gettysburg's 12.

The O'Donnell trophy, put into competition by Notre Dame in honor of the former president of the South Bend, Ind., university, now has been won three times by Oklahoma. The Sooners won their first leg on the trophy in 1950.

Iowa's Rose Bowl bound Hawkeyes, who had their best season since 1922 with an 8-1 record, finished third. They compiled 1,270 points on the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc.

Georgia Tech, who'll meet Pitt in the Gator Bowl, was right behind Iowa in 4th place with 1,211 votes. The Engineers were followed by Texas A&M with 1,070; Miami, 867; Michigan, 599; Syracuse, 406; Michigan State, 309; and Oregon State, 299.

Syracuse is headed for the Cotton Bowl and Oregon State for Rose Bowl.

Lambert Trophy Goes To Syracuse

NEW YORK (AP)—The 1956 Lambert Trophy, emblematic of Eastern college football supremacy, was awarded to Syracuse Monday in the 21st annual competition.

Syracuse, which plays Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas Jan. 1, received 12 first place votes, while Pitt, the 1955 winner, received two, and Yale one.

Syracuse will receive the trophy at the Metropolitan Club here Dec. 9.

Penn State was third in the final ratings, followed by Yale, Navy, Army, Holy Cross, Princeton, Boston College, and Springfield (Mass.).

SYRIAN CRISIS IS REPORTED FROM BAGHDAD

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—A crisis in the Syrian government was reported Monday by the Baghdad newspaper Al Shaab.

It said Syrian Premier Sabri Assali resigned in a dispute with the army involving Iraq. President Shukri Kuwailat refused to accept the resignation and was pictured as trying to patch up the rift.

The paper said Assali tried to quit in protest against charges by the Syrian army that Iraq attempted to supply arms for a coup in Syria. Al Shaab said the allegations were made by a group of officers headed by Col. Abdul Hamid Serraj.

Col. Serraj is chief of Syrian army intelligence and leader of a group sympathetic to Moscow because of enmity for Britain and France. The Soviet Union is reported to be supplying Syria with cheap arms. Serraj is an ardent admirer of Gamal Abdel Nasser, Egypt's president.

Al Shaab gave this account: One Laurence Al Shaab, sentenced to death recently on arms and dope smuggling charges, gave information about the smuggling of arms to the Syrian legation in Amman. Serraj's group used this information to accuse Iraq, which

FINISH PAYING TURNPIKE LINK

HARRISBURG (AP)—A weekend payment of 4 million dollars has completed retirement of 47 millions in bonds sold to finance construction of the original 160-mile Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The original link of the 360-mile east-west toll highway between Middlesex, near Carlisle, and Irwin, was opened to traffic Oct. 1, 1950.

Turnpike Commission Chairman G. Franklin McSorley said tolls from the main turnpike now would be used to retire 87 millions in bonds for the eastern extension, from Middlesex to Valley Forge, and 77 millions for the western extension, from Irwin to the Ohio State line.

McSorley said the commission has available in excess of a million dollars a month for retirement of bonds for the two extensions due in 1958.

Stalin's Tomb At Moscow Is Closed

MOSCOW (AP)—The Lenin-Stalin tomb in Moscow's Red Square was closed Monday without immediate official explanation. A guard at the gate of the mausoleum said it had been closed for renovations, the standard Soviet explanation for such an action.

Ever since Nikita Khrushchev, first secretary of the Communist party, launched the de-Stalinization campaign last Feb. 20 there has been speculation outside Russia that Stalin's embalmed body eventually would be moved from the tomb.

Many of the pictures and statues of Stalin have disappeared from prominent places in the Soviet Union.

abuts on both Syria and Jordan. There even was an army demand that Syria break off relations with Iraq, but the government refused. As a result, widespread differences have developed within the Syrian army itself and some high-ranking officers have been arrested.

Actually, Al Shaab said, the arms smuggling was part of "a net of smugglers working between Syria, Jordan and Israel." Publication of their names, it went on, was banned in Syria "to hide an attempt to involve Iraq."

There was no indication in this dispatch as to the source of Al Shaab's information. The Syrian army has that nation's press and radio under tight control and bars nearly all information from the west. Outgoing dispatches also are censored.

IKE CALLS FOR LEADERS; PLAN TALKS FRIDAY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower Monday called Secretary of Defense Wilson and other administration officials to a Friday meeting here to discuss the level of military spending for the new fiscal year.

At the same time, Eisenhower's vacation headquarters announced:

1. Indefinite postponement of the Washington meetings the President had scheduled with Congressional leaders for Dec. 13-14. The sessions had been called for discussion of the administration's legislative program for 1957, to be outlined in Eisenhower's State of the Union message going to Congress early next month.

May Stay Longer

The meetings are being postponed, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said, because several administration officials who normally would attend will be in Paris at that time for a conference of the NATO Ministerial Council.

2. Present indications are the President will stay on here, combining work and golf, for longer than the two weeks he had planned originally. He arrived from Washington a week ago Monday.

Eisenhower's first scheduled Washington engagement at this time is the start of talks with India's Prime Minister Nehru Dec. 16. The two men probably will move outside of Washington for continuance of the talks after meeting there first.

Asked whether the President is likely to remain in Augusta until he returns to the White House to meet Nehru, Hagerty said, "there is nothing else scheduled before that, but that does not necessarily mean we would stay down here all that time. On the other hand, it could."

GIRLS JAILED; CREATE BOMB

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A British court sentenced two teen-age Cypriot girls to long jail terms Monday for having a homemade bomb. They were the first girls sentenced for such an offense.

Pamphila Constantinou, 19, was sentenced to seven years and Rita Anthouli, 18, to two years.

The bomb was found in Miss Constantinou's hand bag last month when her car was stopped and searched at a roadblock.

The Greek Cypriot rebels meanwhile renewed their bombing attacks on the British after a week of quiet.

Three British soldiers were wounded and two military vehicles attacked on Sunday in different parts of this British colonial island.

Rebel attacks subsided a week ago when Gov. Sir John Harding went to London for talks on new constitutional proposals for Cyprus.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
TORONTO (AP)—C. O. Knowles, 81, former editor of the Toronto Telegram, associated with the newspaper for nearly 50 years, and first general manager of the Canadian Press, died yesterday.

SAG HARBOR, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. Martin A. White, 83, who under the name of "Adele Garrison" wrote what was believed to be the longest serial story in newspaper history, 13 million words of a 41-year story called "Revelations of a Wife," died Sunday. Mrs. White, whose late husband was longtime general news editor of The Associated Press, was born in Clinton, Wis.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Raymond L. Crowley, 62, wife of the managing editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, died yesterday.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Thomas T. Railley, 71, general solicitor of the associated with the railroad since 1915, died yesterday.

Red Minister Gets Fourth Gold Star

MOSCOW (AP)—Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, Soviet defense minister and wartime friend of President Eisenhower, is one up on anybody else in the Soviet Union.

For his 60th birthday, the government on Sunday gave him the Order of Lenin and a fourth Gold Star Medal. That's one more gold star than any other Russian has ever received.

The medals are given to "Heroes of the Soviet Union."

ASK U. S. HELP TO ENFORCE INTEGRATION

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—The Anderson County School Board asked the federal government Monday for help in enforcing racial integration at Clinton High School.

Otherwise, the board said, "it might become necessary to close" the school.

The board acted in an extraordinary 7:30 a.m. session. In a letter to U.S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell the board declared:

"The school board of Anderson County has conscientiously done all in its power to comply with the direction of the U.S. District Court in Knoxville, which ordered the integration last Jan. 4.

Contrary to Convictions
"This has been done, contrary to our convictions on the matter and in the face of constant criticism and harassment from our fellow citizens... the Anderson County School Board must know whether the Department of Justice intends to continue lack of enforcement of the federal court injunction (against interfering with integration). If so, it might become necessary to close the Clinton High School so long as we are under order to abolish segregation."

Ten Negro pupils remaining of the dozen admitted under federal court orders this year have stayed away from school since last Tuesday. They demanded the board give them assurance of their personal safety.

They left school after rock and egg throwing incidents last Monday and Tuesday climaxed a series of acts of harassment by white pupils which had developed in recent weeks.

SUSPECT IN 3 POISON DEATHS TAKES HIS LIFE

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP)—Teen-age Molly Kidwell's elderly suitor, charged with murder in the poison death of her father and two young brothers, hanged himself early Monday in his jail cell.

State trooper J. E. Durst said the body of William S. Knighten, 72, of nearby Bolivar, was found hanging from the cell bars, a sheet knotted about his neck.

Knighten was arrested Sunday night on a warrant charging him with the arsenic deaths of William S. Kidwell, 42, and his sons, Thomas 1, and Charles 2.

Father, Two Sons Die
Members of the Kidwell family became ill Nov. 10, Durst said. The father and nine children, including 13-year-old Molly, were admitted to a hospital in Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 14. The two children died the next day, their father a week later on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Kidwell was hospitalized later when she became ill during questioning by state police.

Durst said Nov. 24 that arsenic was on the sides of the well at the Kidwell farm home after an autopsy revealed that the children died of arsenic poisoning.

Durst said the man denied placing poison in the well.

Lewistown Studies Rte. 322 Relocation

HARRISBURG (AP)—A public hearing will be held Dec. 11 in Lewistown to determine the economic effect of a proposed relocation of U.S. 322 in and surrounding the borough.

The relocation will include construction of 5.77 miles of roadway and erection of 11 bridges of various types.

Since the project is to be financed by federal road building aid, a hearing must be held to comply with the terms of the federal act.

Rockview Escapee Captured Quickly

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP)—A prisoner at the Rockview State Penitentiary was back in the prison Monday after only an hour and a half of freedom.

Prison officials identified the prisoner as John Winkler, 43, Homestead, Pa., originally sentenced for robbery and receiving stolen goods, who was paroled in 1951 and returned to the prison in 1955 on parole violation charge.

Prison officials said that Winkler obtained a hack saw in some way, sawed his way out of a minimum security cell on the ground level and climbed over the prison stockade about 10 p.m. yesterday.

A prison guard and a game protector spotted him about 11:30 p.m. on a road a quarter of a mile from the prison and took him into custody.

Rescue Plane, Crew Missing Over Sea

MARSEILLE (AP)—A French four-engine rescue plane with 10 crewmen aboard has been missing since early Sunday on a flight over the western Mediterranean.

Maritime officials said the Languedoc plane was part of the force which flew cover missions over a freighter out of control in heavy seas for two days with a smashed rudder off Spain.

EZIO PINZA HAS SECOND ATTACK

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—Singer Ezio Pinza was felled yesterday by his second heart attack in three months.

The name of the 64-year-old basso was placed on the danger list at Greenwich Hospital shortly after he was admitted, but a hospital spokesman said this procedure was routine in such cases. His wife spent the night at the hospital.

Pinza, a Metropolitan Opera star before going on Broadway in "South Pacific" and "Fanny," said only last month he was ending his 37-year singing career and planned to take up acting.

Last August he suffered a heart attack at his summer home in Cervia, Italy, not far from his boyhood home in Ravenna.

It forced him to cancel his contract to appear in the play "A Very Special Baby."

Yesterday's attack caught him just before lunch in the dining room of his home in nearby Stamford, where he lives with his wife and three children, aged 5, 13, and 15.

In trimming North Texas State, 45-0, Mississippi failed to call on any of its punters.

NEW RAMBLER MODELS FOR '57 ARE ANNOUNCED

DETROIT — The Rambler "Rebel," a new 1957 model equipped with a new electronic fuel injection system, was announced today by Roy Abernethy, vice president of automotive distribution and marketing, American Motors Corporation.

The new car will be unveiled for the first time at the National Automobile Show in New York, Dec. 8-16.

"The Rambler Rebel is the first production car with an electronic fuel injection system," Abernethy said. "Top performance and agility of the Rebel is derived from a combination of maximum power with compact size and maximum weight. With weight-saving single-unit construction, the Rebel will have among the highest power-to-weight ratios ever offered in a six-passenger car."

Produce In Spring
Production on the new model will begin early in the spring, Abernethy said, and will be available at Hudson and Nash dealerships throughout the country.

The Rambler Rebel is available with the 327 cubic inch American Motors V-8 engine. The engine is Raise Interest Limit In Banks To 3 Pct.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Starting Jan. 1, federally insured commercial banks may pay 3 per cent interest on savings accounts and certain other deposits.

The government yesterday authorized the increase from the current 2½ per cent ceiling in a move aimed at spurring savings and making available more money for capital investment.

The increase applies not only to savings accounts, but to time deposits and certificates which run longer than six months. Those between 90 days and six months now may carry 2½ per cent interest, up from 2 per cent.

equipped either with a standard four-barrel carburetor, developing 255 horsepower, or the optional fuel injection system, rated at 288 horsepower.

The "Electrojector" system of fuel injection, produced by Bendix, differs from all other existing fuel injection systems in that it is controlled electronically, Abernethy said. Using transistors, it senses fuel requirements and electronically actuates injector nozzles which spray directly into the intake port of each cylinder.

SEVERE SUEZ HANGOVER HITS BRITISH PEOPLE

LONDON (AP) — The British people awakened today to a severe Suez hangover, with Prime Minister Eden's prestige at perhaps the lowest ebb since he took office 20 months ago.

There was widespread feeling that the decision to pull out of Egypt without delay was a national humiliation. Even some of Eden's last-ditch supporters were asking: How long can he hang on as prime minister?

Conservative leaders in the House of Commons, forewarned of revolt in the party ranks, sought to drum up all possible support for a motion of confidence in the government which will come to a vote Thursday night.

The opposition Labor party planned an all-out challenge, probably with a motion seeking to censure the whole policy of intervention in the canal zone.

Even worse than the political crisis, to most Britons, was a looming economic emergency which threatened the stability of the pound and the national standard of living.

Government experts figured the Suez attack by next April would have cost Britain between 330 and 420 million dollars, including extra military spending, loss of Middle East oil and extra cost of shipping around South Africa. Still to be reckoned were enormous future losses: dollars to buy Western Hemisphere oil, Britain's share of clearing the canal, a general slump anticipated as a result of the oil shortage, and damage to British prestige and business in the Middle East and Asia.

The strong anti-American feeling which welled up in the closing stages of the British-French military adventure in Egypt was all but forgotten in a new general demand for repair of the Atlantic Alliance.

years has backed the Conservatives through thick and thin, said that "the whole affair has been politically bungled by the British government to an incredible degree."

Lord Beaverbrook's Independent Daily Express, which had supported Eden strongly, said there was feeling in the House of Commons that Eden "may resign almost at once" after his return from Jamaica.

Policy 'In Ruins'
The Laborite Daily Herald said the decision to get out of Egypt means that the policy of the Conservative government "is in ruins."

The independent but consistently pro-Conservative Times said the withdrawal from Egypt "should be the signal for the American government not only to permit the coordination of emergency oil supplies for Europe but to take the firm initiative in the Middle East as a whole which is so desperately needed."

Jury Summons Works With Corner Missing

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A hungry 14-month-old son nearly got his father out of jury duty — but not quite.

William S. Pickett Jr. showed up in criminal court for jury duty, but didn't know where he was to serve because his son chewed the corner off his summons.

Judge Frank A. Ropke drafted Pickett for the grand jury anyway. He needed 12 men, only 11 showed up and Pickett was standing by.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A dental firm has asked a court to make a dissatisfied man quit complaining that his teeth don't fit. Bell Dental Laboratories, Inc., asked $15,000 in damages from P. K. Lee of San Jacinto, Tex., and a temporary injunction. The firm said he had been making derogatory remarks about its work.

EX-BANKER IS CHARGED WITH HUGE SWINDLE

NEW YORK (AP) — William R. Rose, resigned president of a Catskill mountain bank, has been rearrested after an audit showed the bank's records were juggled by false entries in excess of one million dollars, the FBI office here announced today.

The alleged manipulation previously had been set at $500,000. The FBI said Rose was seized yesterday at Mineola, on Long Island. It did not say why yhe wealthy 51-year-old bachelor had come downstate to Mineola.

The new charge was the same as the one on which the FBI arrested Rose last Friday night — violation of the federal reserve law by altering records of the Home National Bank at Ellenville, N.Y.

Got No Money
Rose, who resigned as president of the bank the day after his first arrest, was quoted at that time as saying he got none of the money involved and manipulated the accounts to help out two local businesses.

Rose, who had been free in $25,000 bail awaiting a hearing, was lodged in the federal house of detention in Manhattan after the rearrest pending arraignment here today.

If convicted, Rose could be sentenced to a possible maximum of five years in prison or a $5,000 fine, or both.

All-Day Audit
Rose's rearrest was announced shortly before dawn by James J. Kelly, special agent in charge of the New York FBI office.

Kelly said an all-day audit conducted yesterday raised the total to more than a million dollars in the alleged false entries to conceal fund manipulations.

The action came as some 3,000 residents of Ellenville — official population 4,200 — were putting

"There's No Better Value Than Blue Cross Protection!"

"And I know what I'm talking about. Both my wife and youngster had to go to the hospital this year... it would have floored us financially, but I keep my family protected by Blue Cross against the cost of hospital care."

This bit of conversation is typical of the confidence members have in their Blue Cross protection... especially in these days of rising hospital costs.

Millions of members recommend Blue Cross to their friends, neighbors and associates because they're convinced—often by their own experience—it's the most realistic protection there is against the cost of hospital care. More than almost everything else, the cost of hospital care has risen sharply in the past ten years. That is why today, more than ever before, it is important to keep your family protected by Blue Cross. Blue Cross provides for most hospital services at the lowest possible cost.

Most people join where they work. If there's no Blue Cross Group where you work, perhaps one can be started. Otherwise, you may be able to join on your own. Just write BLUE CROSS, Box 206, HARRISBURG. Information will be mailed to you promptly.

GET FIGURES ON NEGROES' JOBS WITH U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A presidential committee reported today that Negroes comprise 23.4 per cent of the federal employees in five major cities, including this one.

Chairman Maxwell Abbell of President Eisenhower's Committee on Government Employment Policy, which compiled the figures, said the survey turned up two findings which he termed of particular significance.

"The first is that Negroes are employed by the federal government well above their ratio to the total population," Abbell said. "The second is that Negroes are by no means confined either to the menial jobs of the government or to the lower grades in the (civil service) Classification Act."

11 Per Cent Of Population
The ratio of Negroes to the total U.S. population is about 11 per cent.

Besides the capital, cities covered by the survey were Chicago, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Mobile, Ala.

The committee found that 43 per cent of the Negroes employed in the five cities held "Classification Act" or "white collar" jobs and 31 per cent held "wage board" or "blue collar" jobs paid on a per-day basis. The 26 per cent listed in "other" jobs included postal employees.

Some Supervisory Jobs
The survey showed that of all Negro federal workers in the five cities, 5 per cent were in supervisory jobs and had administrative

$400,000 FIRE DESTROYS XMAS WREATH PLANT

NEW ALBANY, Pa. (AP)—A roaring fire in this tiny highway community destroyed a Christmas wreath plant and the 100-year-old town hall today. It sent hundreds of wreaths up in smoke and paralyzed the industrial life of most of New Albany's 500 citizens.

The flames leveled the main manufacturing plant of the Rynveldt Wreath Co., the firm's large storage barn and the steeped two-story town hall. All were wooden structures.

"She just blew up and burned the plant down," said Henry Dustman, Rynveldt plant manager, who estimated company damage at $400,000.

35 Persons Flee
Thirty-five persons in the building — most of them women — fled to the street, just off U.S. Route 220 in the heart of New Albany's two-block business district. Harry Kingsley, a paint room worker, attempted vainly to smother the flames, and then ran, screaming the alarm.

Outside, flames punctuated by several minor explosions from paint drums were sending sparks into the air on a high wind. New Albany firemen found their new fire house ablaze and saved it from more than roof damage. A number of other rooftops were scorched.

Game Warden Finds A Bottle Hunter

ST. JAMES, Minn. (AP)—Game Warden Phil Ham, piloting his plane over pheasant country, noticed a car stop several times. On each occasion the driver hurried into the ditch and back to the car.

Things looked suspicious. Ham radioed ground wardens and directed their cars into St. James where they halted the mysterious hunter.

The car contained no pheasants — not even a gun.
"I was out hunting up enough beer bottles in the ditches to fill up my case," said the frightened driver.

Rev. Paul Burkhardt, member of the Marist Fathers, Washington, D.C., will be the speaker at the Forty Hours Devotion to open Sunday morning at St. Joseph's Church, Bonneauville, with a High Mass at 10 o'clock. The school children will march in procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament that morning.

Mass will be offered Monday and Tuesday mornings at 8:30 and 9 o'clock. Services will be held Sunday evening at 7 o'clock and on Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Solemn closing of exercises will be held Tuesday evening with the pastor, Rev. Fr. Leo J. Krichen, Rev. Fr. Burkhardt and other local priests participating.

A procession of the visiting clergy, Holy Name Men and school children and solemn benediction will bring the devotions to a close.

One fireman was overcome by smoke and one woman fainted. Dustman said the exact cause of the fire had not been determined.

Littlestown LUTHER LEAGUE HOLDS MEETING

"Migration" was the subject of the topic discussed by Richard Mackley at the meeting of St. John's Church Luther League on Sunday evening. The group singing of hymns, accompanied by Kathy Miller, opened the program, which included the Scripture by Susan Reaver and prayer by the pastor, Rev. William C. Karns. The group decided to go caroling after the Christmas social on Sunday, Dec. 16, 6 p.m., which will feature a covered dish supper and party. Joyce Barnes was appointed to be leader for the meeting next Sunday at 6 p.m.

The Council of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold its December session at the church, Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m.

George D. Koons was leader for the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church on Sunday evening. The following program was presented: opening hymn, "Wonderful Power," accompanied by Joan Bair; hymn, "Savior, Thy Dying Love;" Scripture, Donald Berwager; prayer, Richard Berwager; offertory piano solo, Evelyn Koons; hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour;" topic, "Possessions, Mine or God's?"

discussed by Lewis E. Bair; routine business conducted by the hymn, "Sun of My Soul"; Lord's Prayer and C. E. benediction in unison. The regular meeting of the Society will be held at 7 p.m. next Sunday. On Dec. 16 at 2 p.m., the C. E. will present its annual Christmas program at the Adams County Home, Gettysburg.

Meetings Announced
Mrs. Harold E. Shoemaker will be leader at the monthly meeting of the Christ Church Women's Guild at the church on Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.

The Consistory of Christ Church will have its December meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m., at the church.

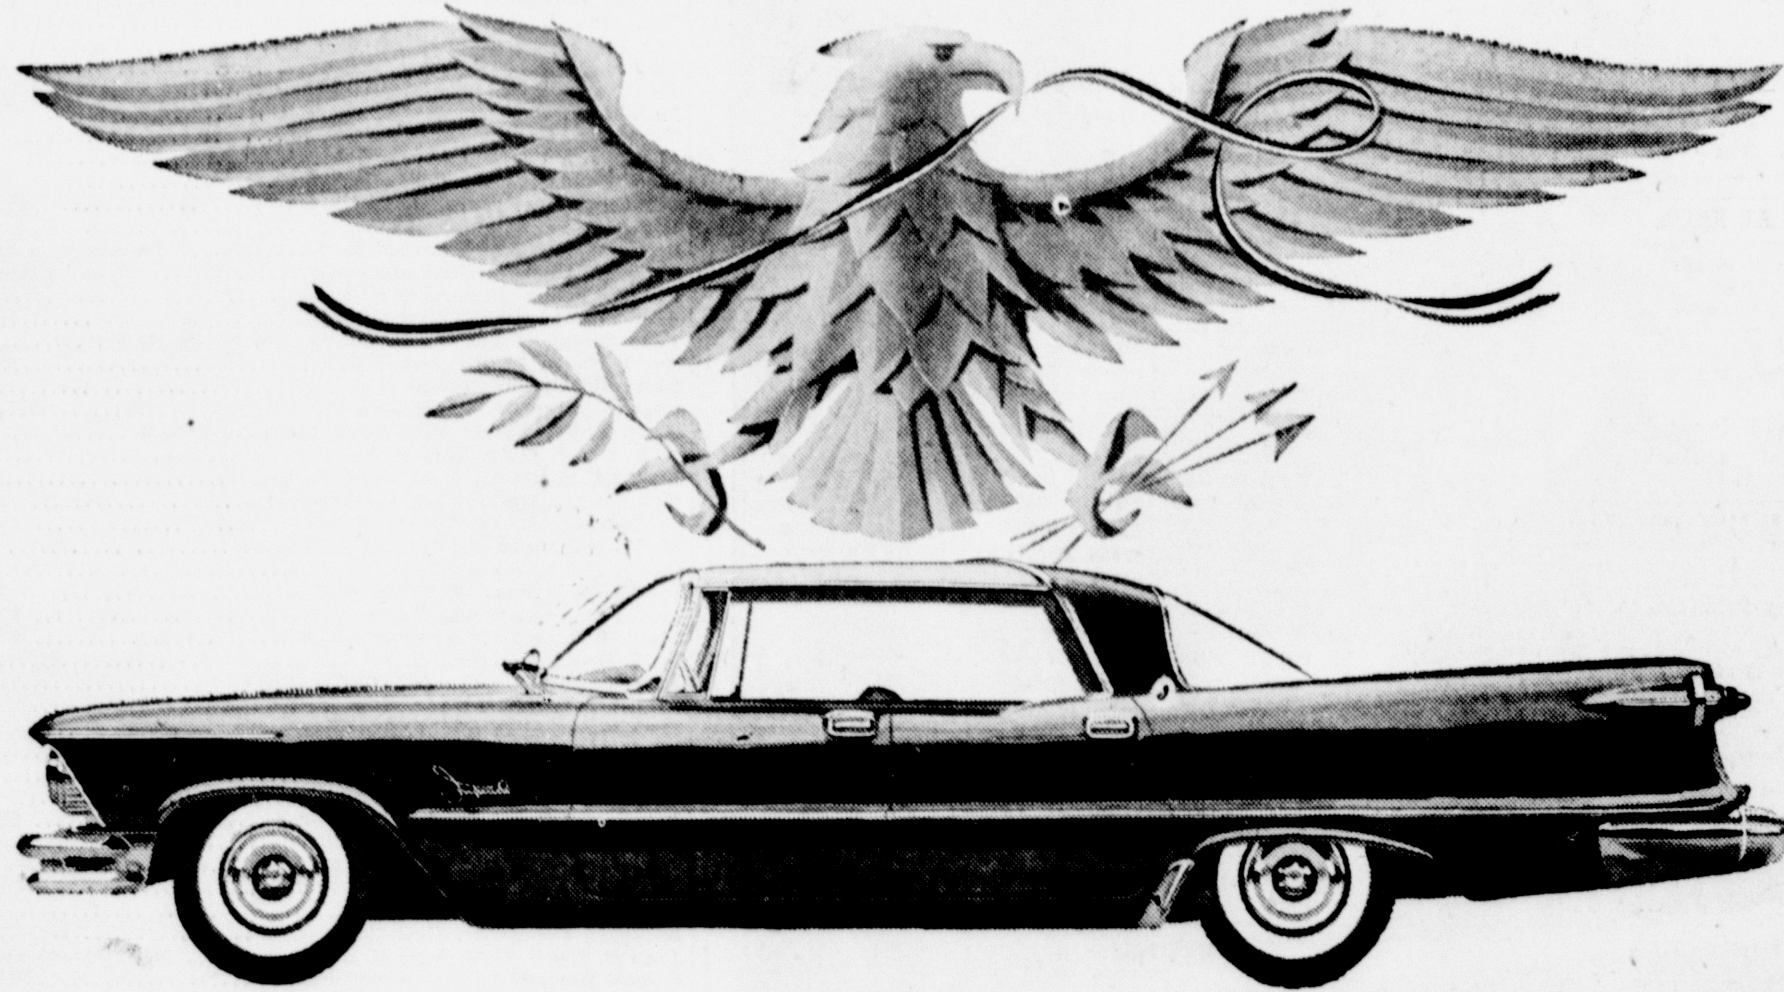

Mrs. Pauline Harner and Mrs. Betty Rogers will serve as hostesses at the first December meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 on Wednesday, 8 p.m., at the FOE Home, W. King St. Plans will be made for the Auxiliary Christmas party and covered dish supper to be held on Dec. 19.

The name of Ms. Ray T. Harner was unintentionally omitted among those members of the Ocker-Snyder Post 321, American Legion Auxiliary, who visited the veterans patients at the South Mountain Hospital on Sunday.

Toast a half cup of silvered blanched almonds in a couple of tablespoons of butter in a small skillet. Good over practically any cooked green vegetable when company's coming.

U.S. Warns Syria Against Aggression In Middle East

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Reliable Syrian sources say the United States has told Syria it will tolerate no more aggression in the Middle East.

American Ambassador James A. Moose was reported to have given that word to Premier Sabri Assali in a 90-minute interview, with the declaration covering moves against Syria or any other nation in the Middle East area.

The U.S. Embassy declined to comment on the report of the meeting. Assali told reporters Moose "explained to me the new United States policy toward the Middle East."

He said the ambassador also outlined America's "eagerness that all Middle Eastern countries should maintain their freedom and independence."

In a statement to the press, the Premier said: "We hope the international atmosphere is improved, but despite tranquilizing American announcements on the Middle East we must remain on the alert to face any possible future eventuality."

Guard Public Buildings
Soldiers carrying tommyguns remained on guard at public buildings in Damascus and hotels and other major buildings were still sandbagged. Volunteers of the "popular resistance organization" continued drilling on the city's outskirts.

Premier David Ben-Gurion of Israel declared the Soviet Union is pouring jet fighters and bombers into Syria and said the Israeli air force must be strengthened.

Speaking at a defense bond rally in Tel Aviv, Ben-Gurion said: "We cannot be satisfied with the former strength of the Israeli air force when we hear about the flow of Soviet planes to Syria."

He said Russia had deliberately arms being shipped "to add to Israel's and the Western world's headaches—and because when the Syrian replenishing is completed, the Russians will again start supplying Egypt."

Another report of troop movements in the turbulent Middle East was denied at Ankara, Turkey. Acting Defense Minister Shermi Ergin termed "malicious" a report by the Soviet news agency Tass that two battalions of Turkish troops had been sent to Iraq at the request of Iraqi Premier Nuri Said.

Oppose Red Aid
"There has been no such request and no troops were dispatched to Iraq," Ergin asserted. "These reports are circulated with malicious aims. We also know that there is no situation in Iraq which she could not handle with her own troops."

Turkey and Iraq are members of the Baghdad Pact, along with Iran, Pakistan and Britain.

A Saudi Arabian official declared that his nation and other Arab countries do not want Russian intervention in the Middle East.

Sheik Mohamed Alireza, Saudi Arabia's minister of commerce, told reporters in Zurich, Switzerland, he had "just seen the plight of the Hungarian refugees in Austria and that is the best lesson anyone could want of what Soviet intervention means."

Alireza, in Switzerland for medical treatment, also said Saudi Arabia will be glad to resume the shipment of oil to Britain and France as soon as they complete withdrawal of

Segregation Is Big Issue In Clinton, Tenn., Election

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP) — Racially tense Clinton elected city officials today on issues arising from admission of a dozen Negroes to Clinton High School under federal court orders.

This political test of the role of local officials in desegregation of the school came a day after the Anderson County School Board told federal officials they couldn't expect local officers to do the job.

The Tennessee White Citizens Council, which is dedicated to maintenance of segregation, has campaigned for James B. Meredith for mayor and for two of the six candidates for three posts as alderman.

Meredith, a grocer, opposes T. L. Seiber, former county judge and former Clinton mayor. Mayor W. E. Leavelle did not seek reelection.

Called "Testing Ground" Meanwhile, the school principal has charged that segregationist agitators are using Clinton as a sort of testing ground to try to prove desegregation won't work in Dixie.

"The White Citizens Councils and pro-segregationist agitators are trying to show the entire South that integration will be so unpleasant that no place else will want to try it," Principal D. J. Brittain Jr. said.

During the last week of the municipal election campaign new trouble at Clinton High boiled up into a situation which led the county board to demand federal help yesterday.

Minor incidents of harassment were climaxed by rock and egg throwing a week ago, and the 10 Negroes remaining at the school stayed at home the last three days of last week.

Insist On Protection They said they would not return until the school board gave them assurances of their personal safety. In a resolution addressed to U. S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell, the board said:

"The board does not have any legal power to give protection, nor does it wish to assume it. The only penalty the board can apply is to expel students, an action obviously not designed to enforce a federal court mandate."

The board asked for a reply within five days, and indicated that if federal officers were not sent school may have to be closed by next week.

Clinton's troubles began at school opening Aug. 27 when crowds protested admission of the Negroes amid steadily mounting disorder until National Guardsmen came in to restore order Labor Day weekend.

MILD WEATHER IN MANY AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS It was cold and a little wet over northern areas of the country today but mild weather for the season prevailed in most other sections.

The coldest zone was from Lake Superior to Montana. Temperatures ranged from the 20s along the southern edge of the colder air to near zero along the northern border from Minnesota to Montana.

Some of the cooler air from Canada spread into the Great Lakes region and southward through the Ohio Valley. Readings were in the 30s, about 10 degrees lower than yesterday morning.

Some snow fell in the northern Great Lakes region and in sections of Minnesota, Montana and western North Dakota. Snow also fell during the night in northern New England, with falls measuring 4 to 6 inches reported in parts of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

The year 1957 will mark the 200th anniversary of the birth of Lafayette And 42 cities in the U. S. named after the French hero of the American revolution plan ceremonies to celebrate the event.

BOY WHO KILLED MOTHER TO GET MENTAL TEST

BROOKVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Dist. Atty. William McKnight of Jefferson County says he will request a mental examination for a 16-year-old boy accused of killing his mother with a shotgun.

The defendant, Samuel Lavella of Crenshaw, about 20 miles northeast of here, pleaded guilty to a murder charge in the slaying of his 38-year-old mother, Mrs. Frank Lavella, in the family home Saturday night.

"I'm preparing a petition to have the boy taken to the Warren State Hospital for observation and examination," McKnight told a newsman. "I will present the petition to the court in a few days. If the boy is found legally sane he will probably be tried on a murder charge in February. If he is found insane he will be treated and tried later when it is determined he is legally sane."

The district attorney added that the move is "merely precautionary."

No Insanity Signs "There is nothing to indicate to me he is sane or insane," McKnight said. "But we want to be sure of ourselves before we place the case before the grand jury in January."

Meanwhile, Lavella is being held in the Jefferson County Jail. His mother's body was found by hunters Sunday in a wooded section about 13 miles from her home.

State police said young Lavella at first told his father, a tavern owner, that his mother had left home after receiving a telephone call.

Later, police said, the youth admitted shooting his mother with a shotgun and transporting her body in the family station wagon to the wooded section.

Police quoted him as saying his mother scolded him for cleaning a rifle in the absence of his father. Police said he then picked up a shotgun in anger and fired at her.

The 1948 Boston Braves won the National League pennant by 6½ games over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Brooklyn Dodgers were one game back of the Cards.

Don Townsend of Elizabeth, N. J. has been unbeaten in 13 cross-country meets for St. John's University of Brooklyn over the last two seasons.
